

Features

Betting on a Clerkship 18

How is a clerkship like analytical philosophy? They are both betting games, posits Professor Stein as he looks back at his year-long clerkship with Judge Dolores Sloviter of the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

BY ED STEIN
PROFESSOR OF LAW

In the Spirit of Cardozo: The Founding of the Law School 20

A solid foundation, a pioneering spirit, and students and faculty who believed the future was bright for Yeshiva University's new law school were the elements that came together in Cardozo's first years. A look back provides a historical perspective as the Law School looks toward its next 25 years.

BY GARY GOLDENBERG

Summer Jobs. Summer School. They Aren't Just Work 29

There are many ways to spend the summer when you are a law student. Some provide lawyering experiences that fatten the résumé and hone skills, while others offer learning and academic opportunities that enrich life at law school.

BY VICTORIA RIVKIN

Cardozo Students Learn the Art of Crafting Solutions Through ADR. 35

Methods to resolve disputes that avoid costly litigation and courtroom brawls are quite the fashion. Cardozo's dispute resolution program has been at the forefront of the field for nearly 20 years. A comprehensive curriculum, clinic, and certificate program are among the reasons that Cardozo's program has gone to the top of the national rankings.

BY JANE LINKER

Departments

Around Campus 3

Conference Examines Challenges to Tolerance • Sen. George Mitchell and Seeds of Peace Win Awards for Peace Efforts • Students Shape Campus Life • Scholars Explore Lacan and Crime • Compulsive Hoarding Conference Held • Torture? Maybe • Davidoff at Dean's Lunch • IP Events • Ethics Center Brings Insiders to Discuss Controversial Cases • Students Honored

Faculty Briefs. 14

Three Join Faculty, Eleven Visit • Hughes Visits China for Media Law Program

Alumni News & Notes . . . 40

Judge Weinstein Delivers Commencement Address • Criminal Law Clinic Graduate Defends the Innocent • Spotlight on the West Coast • New Officers Elected • Scholarship Honors Andrew Zucker • Annual Fund Honor Roll • Reunion • ClassActions