

AVIGAIL SCHIMMEL

Features

An Interview with Earle I. Mack 15

Board chairman for more than a decade, member of the Cardozo Board for twice that, Earle I. Mack tells Cardozo Life editor Susan Davis how he has maintained his enthusiasm for Cardozo and what he still wants to accomplish.

Cardozo Emerges New. 19

Nearly $40 million has been spent in enlarging and renovating Cardozo. The newest floor of the library and the lobby level of Brookdale Center opened during the spring semester, offering students a first-rate urban campus.

Washington, Patton, Schwarzkopf, and... Ashcroft? 26

In recent years it has become somewhat common practice to refer to both the Attorney General and the Solicitor General as "General," a title not endorsed by governmental agencies nor one historically or grammatically appropriate. Professor Herz writes amusingly about the genesis of this honorific.

BY MICHAEL HERZ
PROFESSOR OF LAW

Making it Big: Cardozo Powergrads Take on Corporate America 31

A great number of Cardozo graduates enter the field of corporate law; however, that may be where the similarities end. As shown here, many choose very distinct, individualized career paths.

BY MELISSA PAYTON

Departments

Around Campus 3

Former Cardozo Dean Ascends to YU Presidency • Dean Announces Center for Public Service Law • Cardozo Team Competes in Europe • Supreme Court Cites AELJ • Ed Koch Greets New Class • New Labor and Employment Law Externship • Justice Laddie Explores Global Impact of IP Law • Talk and Art on Spinoza • Student Wins ABA Contest • Busy Semester for IP and ADR

Faculty Briefs. 10

Spring Brings Visitors • Faculty Earning Their Reputation • Rosenfeld Named Editor of New Journal

Alumni News & Notes. . . 37

Dean Takes Cardozo on the Road • Alumni Add to Cardozo's New Look • Dean Names Development Director • Letters to the Editor • ClassActions • Board News