

3 Around Campus

Nuremberg Legacy • Bellhead/Nethead • Former Solicitor General Visits • Sunstein on Marriage • Moot Court Teams Take Top Honors • Eyewitness ID Reform • Program News

16 Faculty Briefs

Three Join Faculty • Brickman Joins President • Faculty Briefs

24 God vs. The Gavel

Prof. Marci Hamilton's new book chronicles the history of religious freedom and the constitutional guarantees we have come to rely upon. Then she shows how religious institutions are using First Amendment rights to protect illegal and harmful behavior. In this excerpt she explains her thesis and her reasons for writing the book.

26 An Interview with Robert Schwartz '92

Dean of Admissions Rob Schwartz gives an inside look at the admissions process and tells us what applicants and students alike are saying about Cardozo.

30 Adieu J.D.: A Tribute to Jacques Derrida

Prof. Peter Goodrich takes a warm and scholarly approach in his remembrance of philosopher Jacques Derrida, who died this past spring and who for many years was a regular and distinguished visitor at Cardozo.

36 Clerking at the ICTY

Meir Katz '04 writes about his time as a clerk at the United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia—an experience he calls profound and, yes, life changing.

40 Effecting Change Globally: Cardozo Alumni Working in the International Arena

Sara Wolosky profiles seven Cardozo alumni working in such areas as human rights, intellectual property, and corporate law. Based stateside as well as abroad, they are all working on issues of international law.

46 Alumni News

Spitzer is Commencement 2005 Speaker • Class of 1980 Celebrates 25th Anniversary • Class Actions • Focus on Mark Simon '01 • Cardozo on the Road • More Reunions • LL.M. Alumni News • Board News